

Department of Taxation

Ohio Department of Taxation Seeing No Let-up in Fraud Attempts

The Ohio Tax Commissioner is reminding taxpayers that with the tax filing deadline quickly approaching, income tax fraud and identity theft continue to pose a risk to filers. The new security measures are working, and feedback from taxpayers has helped the Ohio Department of Taxation (ODT) make improvements to the process. In a news release issued today, it details these improvements and advises taxpayers on the fraudulent activity that is being seen this filing season.