

Ohio's Tax Commissioner Wants to Hear from You

Ohio Tax Commissioner Joe Testa is launching a new program at the State Fair that will give Ohioans the chance to share their ideas about how to improve the state's tax system with him directly. Throughout the State Fair he will be participating in fun events to promote this opportunity, and encouraging patrons to enter a drawing that will give several randomly selected Ohioans, the chance to return to meet with him in the near future in the Governor's Cabinet Room. The Ohio Department of Taxation (ODT) will be at the State Fair starting Wednesday, July 27, 2016 to begin collecting entries. Learn more about the new initiative here.
