

Military Taxpayer Information Release, Revised

The Ohio Department of Taxation has issued a revised information release regarding members of the military, their spouses, and Ohio income tax responsibilities.

The release, ST 2008-02, "Military Taxpayer Guide to Taxable Income and Deductions," has been revised to address the impact on military spouses of the Nov. 12, 2009 amendment to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. It also clarifies the required days of training outside Ohio in order for service members to qualify for a tax deduction for military pay.

ST 2008-02 is posted on the department's Web site, tax.ohio.gov, and can be read in its entirety at the link below:

http://www.tax.ohio.gov/ohio\_individual/individual/information\_releases/it200802.aspx

Thank you for using the OHTAX-Alert tax information notification system.

---