

UNDERSTANDING THE REPORT

T

he 2002 Annual Report of the Ohio Department of Taxation is divided into three primary sections: “Understanding the Department;” “Support and Operating Divisions;” and “Taxes Administered.”

“Understanding the Department” describes:

- departmental responsibilities, financial expenditures, and human resources data;
- major events of the fiscal year, including the Department’s efforts in strategic planning and goal setting;
- a brief summary of revenue generated by the various taxes; and
- major pieces of legislation in 2002 that impacted taxation issues.

“Support and Operating Divisions,” a new feature of the 2002 report, outlines:

- the functions of these divisions and how they contribute to the Department’s overall mission; and
- each division’s significant accomplishments in 2002.

“Taxes Administered” chapters are organized alphabetically, by tax. Each chapter:

- explains the tax base, rates, credits and exemptions, and special provisions, in addition to filing and payment information;
- lists relevant sections of the Ohio Revised Code, information releases, and legislation and court cases that affect the tax; and
- contains charts and tables detailing various statistical information about the tax.

A review of the Department’s administrative rules follows the three primary sections. An index of charts and tables, organized by chapter, concludes the report.

The Annual Report covers only Fiscal Year 2002 and is not intended as a definitive guide or manual interpreting Ohio’s tax laws. For the most up-to-date information on individual taxes, tax filing, publications, historical data and other topics affecting taxation, visit the Department’s web site (www.state.oh.us/tax).
