1996 Instructions For Ohio Form IT-1040EZ

Can I Use The Short Version Of The Ohio Income Tax Return, Form IT-1040EZ?

You may use Form IT-1040EZ if you meet all eight of the following requirements:

1. Your filing status is single,
2. Your income does not exceed $49,999,
3. You were 64 or younger on December 31, 1996,
4. You were a full-year resident of Ohio,
5. You do not claim any dependents other than yourself,
6. You do not have any credits or payments except tax withheld,
7. You do not have any Ohio adjustments to Federal Adjusted Gross Income, and
8. You do not want to credit any part of your 1996 overpayment to your 1997 Ohio income tax liability.

If you do not meet all eight requirements, you must file the standard version of the tax return, Form IT-1040. You may pick up Form IT-1040 at your post office or library, or you may call any of our offices listed on the back of the IT-1040EZ booklet to have one mailed to you.

Completing Your Return

Fill out your federal tax return first. You will need some of the federal tax information to complete your Ohio return.

Most people can fill out this form by following the line instructions on the front. You will have to use the IT-1040EZ booklet to look up your tax on the special EZ tax table. The IT-1040EZ booklet lists the most commonly used Ohio adjustments and credits. If you have any of these adjustments or credits, it may be to your benefit to file the standard version, Form IT-1040.

Special Tax Table

The tax table in the IT-1040EZ booklet requires no adjustments or deductions for your exemption. A $750 exemption deduction and a $20 exemption credit have already been deducted for you. This special tax table cannot be used to calculate the tax for the standard version, Form IT-1040.

Avoid Common Mistakes

1. Are your name, address, and social security number on the label correct? If not, did you correct the label?
2. If you use the label, do not complete the name and address blocks below the label.
3. If you didn't get the label, did you enter your name, address (including zip code), and social security number in the spaces provided on Form IT-1040EZ?
4. Did you check your computations (additions, subtractions, etc.) especially when figuring your Ohio income tax withheld and your refund or amount you owe?
5. Did you use the amount from line 1 to find your tax in the special IT-1040EZ tax table?
6. Did you enter the correct tax amount on line 2?
7. Did you attach your W-2 form(s) to the bottom left of your return, and did you sign and date Form IT-1040EZ?
8. Any amounts entered on lines 6 or 7 will reduce your refund.

What If I Pay Someone To Prepare My Return?

Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it and provide their address at the bottom of the form below your signature.

Someone who prepares your return for no charge does not have to sign the return.

Mailing Your Return

Please do not send photocopies. Use original forms only.

Mail your return by April 15, 1997. Use the envelope that came with the booklet. If you do not have that envelope, mail to the address shown at the bottom of the form.
