Instructions for Completing Estate Tax Form 12A

Note: A consent to transfer is not required for funds on deposit if the only beneficiary is the surviving spouse. Effective Jan. 1, 2001, pursuant to the tax commissioner's authorization, a consent to transfer is not required for funds on deposit if the amount is $25,000 or less per account.

ET forms 12 and 14 will become obsolete for dates of death after Dec. 31, 2012. H.B. 508, 129th General Assembly, revised R.C. section 5731.39. A tax release or consent to transfer is not required for individuals with a date of death after Dec. 31, 2012.

If a release is required, please complete this form and mail to the address listed on the front.

Questions regarding domicile should be directed to the same address and toll-free number.

Give an exact description of the property for which a consent to transfer is requested.

- A. Bank accounts and funds on deposit, including IRAs and Keogh plans, in a savings and loan association or other banking institution – provide the following:
1. Name of institution
 2. Amount on deposit as per last entry prior to death and date of last entry
 3. Type of account
 4. Identifying number and the manner in which the fund is registered
- B. Stocks/bonds – provide the following:
1. Total number of shares or denomination of bonds
 2. Rate of interest and due date
 3. Type and the manner in which they are registered, if registered other than solely in name of decedent

It shall be assumed that all stocks are common unless otherwise indicated.

General Information

The fact that a consent to transfer may or may not be issued does not in itself establish tax liability nor does it relieve tax liability. An estate tax return may be required to be filed pursuant to Ohio Revised Code (R.C.) sections 5731.19 and 5731.21. Tax liability on any property transferred will be determined by the tax commissioner upon audit of the estate tax return. Failure to timely file a return may subject the taxpayer to a penalty pursuant to R.C. section 5731.22.

The tax release estate tax form 14A must accompany this form to obtain a release. Since the tax release will reflect only the last entry balance posted prior to death, this entry may or may not reflect the entire date of death value with the accrued interest due.

Instructions

This form must accompany estate tax form 12A. The attorney for the estate or the applicant should complete this form.

To obtain a release, forward completed estate tax forms 12A and 14A to the Estate Tax Unit at the address above.

The following is required for completion:

Bank Accounts – Copy and describe each account exactly as it is described on the application (estate tax form 12A).

Stocks – Copy and describe each company stock as it is described on the application (estate tax form 12A), except do not carry the value over to this form as the value will vary from date of death to date of actual transfer. Please direct this release to the company or institution where the property is located and not to the individual receiving the property.
