Taxpayer’s Social Security no. (required) Spouse’s Social Security no. (only if married filing jointly)

Total interest penalty due (from page 2, line 14) ................................................................. 0 0

When you file your income tax return please include both pages of this form.

Notes: Most individuals can use this form to compute the interest penalty due. However, some individuals may be able to compute a lower interest penalty if they complete the long method version of form IT/SD 2210. Use form IT/SD 2210 Long if any of the following circumstances apply to you:

• You made married filing jointly estimated income tax payments, but you don’t file your income tax return as married filing jointly.
• You earned more than 75% of your income in the last nine months of the year.
• You made estimated tax payments after a required due date but before the next required due date.
• Your combined state income tax withholding and school district income tax withholding is either equal to or greater than (i) 100% of your year 2010 combined state and school district income tax or (ii) the sum of 90% of your year 2011 state income tax and 90% of your year 2011 school district income tax or (iii) your year 2011 combined state and school district income tax reduced by $500.
• At least two-thirds of your gross income was from farming or fishing.

Federal Privacy Act Notice
Because we require you to provide us with a Social Security number, the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 requires us to inform you that providing us with your Social Security number is mandatory. Ohio Revised Code sections 5703.05, 5703.057 and 5747.08 authorize us to request this information. We need your Social Security number in order to administer this tax.
